

10 THINGS TO AVOID WHEN BOOKING WEDDING ENTERTAINMENT

Texting

It's important to call suppliers and make sure they're the right fit for your wedding.

1

2

No DBS Check

Simple, but overlooked. Lets face it you don't want a criminal being your DJ.

3

Bad Communication

You want them to be chasing you, not the other way round! You're paying them...

4

No Backup Supplier

Hopefully this is never a problem you face, but if they're sick, who is the backup?

5

Bad or No Reviews

Would you eat in a 1 star restaurant with nobody inside? Didn't think so!

6

The Cheapest

Like everything in life (usually) you get what you pay for. Why are they so cheap?

7

No Photo Proof

What will your wedding pictures look like? Do you want a clown or a magician?

8

New In Business

How many weddings have they been to? What if the wedding overruns? Relax, a pro is a pro.

9

No Insurance

Public Liability Insurance is a must. The entertainment should definitely have this.

10

Loads of Availability

If you made the best wedding cake in the world, would you be free every day of the week?

11

No Transport

Train strikes, bus delays and long old walks? Get someone who will be on time!

12

Errors

If they can't remember your name or to call you back, will they forget your special day?
